Contract Intelligence is the breakthrough treatment you're looking for

Contracts define sourcing relationships. Contract Intelligence leverages AI to structure and connect supplier contract data, injecting unprecedented insight and agility into your supply chain.

Contract Intelligence empowers you to...

1

Battle Inflation

Get a global view of price adjustment clauses so you can proactively manage supplier price hikes

Gartner notes that "leading digital organizations have a lower cost of doing business, which results in a significant competitive advantage in the current inflationary environment"²

2

Source Better Suppliers

Leverage contract pricing data and performance to determine which suppliers deserve more business

PwC's Supply Chain Survey 2022 found that 62% of supply chain leaders saw insufficient diversification of their supplier base for critical supplies as a major or moderate risk and 68% saw supplier operational issues as a concern³

3

Accelerate Clinical Trials

Streamline the contract negotiation process with third-party research organizations to innovate faster

Contract and budget negotiations are responsible for 49% of study delays⁴

4

Respond to Regulatory Changes Faster

Keep contracts compliant with one-click bulk updates to templates and active agreements

Responding to regulatory changes typically takes businesses 60 to 90 days⁵
